Happy New Year, United Dems. Time to get to work.

There's a special city council meeting this Tuesday, January 5, regarding potential Brown Act violations by the Mare Island Straits Economic Development Committee. While there's a possibility it may be postponed because 1) we clearly have not gotten all of the documents we've requested and are entitled to, and 2) the Solano County DA has started its own investigation, as of this moment it is still on for Tuesday.

This is an important hearing about the future of Vallejo and we encourage everyone to attend. If you aren't yet familiar with MISED, go to Voices of Vallejo and click on the shadow government links.

Get there early. Wear yellow if you have it. I'll let you all know if the hearing gets continued to a later date.
